BIOGRAPHIES

GERARD BUTLER

Our instructor is Mr. Gerard Butler.
Gerard has traveled all over the world, passing on his dance talents, and holds nine All Ireland titles for different styles of dance. His love of music and dance comes from his father Seamus and his mother Lila. At a young age his father taught him céilí and set dancing while his mother taught him social dancing. He then started teaching dancing at the age of 17 and is now a professional dance teacher.

CAPITOL CEILÍ BAND

Featuring Alan Ng (fiddle, melodeon) Bryan Whiting (flute) and Chelcy Bowles (piano.) "Absolutely magnificent ... beautiful music ... your timing and tempo and your selection of reels/jigs made it very easy and a pleasure to dance, too." – Tony Ryan, dance master in from Galway.

Bryan Whiting and Alan Ng have not only been polishing their flute-fiddle duet for ten years, they are also longtime set dancers who love the thrill of great dance music driving great dancers. Chelcy Bowles has been conjuring imaginative rhythm and harmony on harp and piano for these two friends for even longer.

COSMIC OTTERS

"The Cosmic Otters play tunes geared to happy, dynamic dancing. There is a blend of memorable original melodies ("Great tune choice....what WAS that?") with quirky titles, to classic traditional tunes played with appropriate intensity. It is a blast to work with them, for they love what they do, and they inspire each other and those around them with their happy explosion of music." - Lisa Greenleaf, Dance Caller

ÁTHAS

Milwaukee's beloved áthas features Jeff Ksiazek, Amy Penington, and Heather Lewin, has become the band of choice for dancers in the Chicago and Milwaukee areas in a very short time. Their first album is self-titled: Irish for joy and happiness. It is an interesting and tuneful work, made up of old tunes and new compositions. They have played festivals and dances all over the Midwest, New York State, and elsewhere.
Come see what all the excitement is about-dance to áthas!
